

AFTER

Stylish Mélange

Objective: Create a look that fused Moroccan, Spanish, African and Italian styles while being environmentally conscious.

Outcome: A soft, monochromatic approach was taken to create a soothing and comfortable environment. In the sunken living room, carpet was replaced with hardwood, walls were retextured and painted, and the existing window wall was replaced with a door leading to a back patio to create a larger and more appealing space.

Interior design, architectural collaboration and project management by Christina Haynes Design; Architect, Elizabeth Lonergan; Lighting, Illuminations, The Art of Lighting
Photo by Daniel Snyder

BEFORE

